

2008: a decisive year of MODEM's evolution

Moving in our new facilities at Ury, very significant increase of turnover re large contract award with IMD (India) and MMD (Malaysia), achievement of concept of an automatic launcher called Robotsonde have been the main milestones of 2008.

World major actor in the field of radiosounding, MODEM reinforces his position after a year with a production in constant progression representing today more than 30 000 radiosondes per year.

Robotsonde overview

This new concept of automatic launcher has been developed to facilitate operations tasks allowing full automatic unmanned soundings

- 6 Unmanned soundings
- Programmable timetable (Night, Week-end...)
- Compatible with Helium and Hydrogen
- Operators safety is guaranteed particularly when using hydrogen gas
- Affordable price level

Incoming event

As every year, MODEM will exhibit at the American Meteorological Society 89th annual meeting to be held in Phoenix - Arizona - USA - 11 to 15 January 2009

Booth N° 717

